

My Dietary Plan

7-Day Meal Plan & Grocery Budget — Tbilisi, Georgia

Built for an 18-year-old footballer training on a weekly grocery budget of 350 GEL (~$130 / ~R2,180). The week is split into 5 training days and 2 rest days — carbs shift up on training days to fuel performance and recovery, while protein stays steady every day for muscle repair.

	Training Day	Rest Day
Protein	150–170 g	150–170 g
Carbs	350–450 g	200–250 g
Fat	Moderate	Slightly higher
Focus	Fuel + fast recovery	Micronutrients + repair

Schedule assumes training Mon–Fri, rest Sat–Sun — shift days around to match the real fixture/training calendar.

Monday — TRAINING DAY
Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, matsoni/yogurt (150g), bread (1/3 loaf), banana	Steady protein + carbs to start the day
Pre-training snack	Banana or handful of dried fruit, water	Quick, easy-digesting energy before pitch
Lunch	Chicken breast (150g), rice or buckwheat (150g cooked), vegetables	Main protein + carb refuel
Post-training (within 60 min)	Rice or bread (100–150g) + eggs or leftover chicken, honey	Refill glycogen, kickstart repair
Dinner	Beef or fish (150g), potatoes/rice, vegetables, cheese	Second big protein hit + recovery carbs
Evening snack	Matsoni/yogurt + nuts	Slow protein + fat overnight

~170g protein / ~420g carbs — hard training day, full refuel.

Tuesday — TRAINING DAY

Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, matsoni/yogurt (150g), bread (1/3 loaf), banana	Steady protein + carbs to start the day
Pre-training snack	Banana or handful of dried fruit, water	Quick, easy-digesting energy before pitch
Lunch	Chicken breast (150g), rice or buckwheat (150g cooked), vegetables	Main protein + carb refuel
Post-training (within 60 min)	Rice or bread (100–150g) + eggs or leftover chicken, honey	Refill glycogen, kickstart repair
Dinner	Beef or fish (150g), potatoes/rice, vegetables, cheese	Second big protein hit + recovery carbs
Evening snack	Matsoni/yogurt + nuts	Slow protein + fat overnight

~165g protein / ~400g carbs.

Wednesday — TRAINING DAY

Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, matsoni/yogurt (150g), bread (1/3 loaf), banana	Steady protein + carbs to start the day
Pre-training snack	Banana or handful of dried fruit, water	Quick, easy-digesting energy before pitch
Lunch	Chicken breast (150g), rice or buckwheat (150g cooked), vegetables	Main protein + carb refuel
Post-training (within 60 min)	Rice or bread (100–150g) + eggs or leftover chicken, honey	Refill glycogen, kickstart repair
Dinner	Beef or fish (150g), potatoes/rice, vegetables, cheese	Second big protein hit + recovery carbs
Evening snack	Matsoni/yogurt + nuts	Slow protein + fat overnight

~165g protein / ~400g carbs — use the fish portion from the weekly buffer today.

Thursday — TRAINING DAY

Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, matsoni/yogurt (150g), bread (1/3 loaf), banana	Steady protein + carbs to start the day
Pre-training snack	Banana or handful of dried fruit, water	Quick, easy-digesting energy before pitch
Lunch	Chicken breast (150g), rice or buckwheat (150g cooked), vegetables	Main protein + carb refuel
Post-training (within 60 min)	Rice or bread (100–150g) + eggs or leftover chicken, honey	Refill glycogen, kickstart repair
Dinner	Beef or fish (150g), potatoes/rice, vegetables, cheese	Second big protein hit + recovery carbs
Evening snack	Matsoni/yogurt + nuts	Slow protein + fat overnight

~165g protein / ~400g carbs.

Friday — TRAINING DAY

Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, matsoni/yogurt (150g), bread (1/3 loaf), banana	Steady protein + carbs to start the day
Pre-training snack	Banana or handful of dried fruit, water	Quick, easy-digesting energy before pitch
Lunch	Chicken breast (150g), rice or buckwheat (150g cooked), vegetables	Main protein + carb refuel
Post-training (within 60 min)	Rice or bread (100–150g) + eggs or leftover chicken, honey	Refill glycogen, kickstart repair
Dinner	Beef or fish (150g), potatoes/rice, vegetables, cheese	Second big protein hit + recovery carbs
Evening snack	Matsoni/yogurt + nuts	Slow protein + fat overnight

~170g protein / ~420g carbs — top up carbs if a match is Saturday.

Saturday — REST DAY

Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, cheese (50g), bread (1/4 loaf), vegetables	Protein-forward, lighter on carbs
Lunch	Chicken or beef (150g), small portion rice/buckwheat, extra vegetables	Protein steady, carbs reduced
Snack	Yogurt/matsoni + nuts	Fat and protein instead of fast carbs
Dinner	Fish or beef (150g), vegetables, cheese, small bread portion	Protein + micronutrients, minimal carbs
Evening snack	Handful of nuts or dried fruit	Light, doesn't add unneeded carbs

~160g protein / ~230g carbs — lean on vegetables and dairy.

Sunday — REST DAY

Meal	Food	Purpose
Breakfast	3 eggs, cheese (50g), bread (1/4 loaf), vegetables	Protein-forward, lighter on carbs
Lunch	Chicken or beef (150g), small portion rice/buckwheat, extra vegetables	Protein steady, carbs reduced
Snack	Yogurt/matsoni + nuts	Fat and protein instead of fast carbs
Dinner	Fish or beef (150g), vegetables, cheese, small bread portion	Protein + micronutrients, minimal carbs
Evening snack	Handful of nuts or dried fruit	Light, doesn't add unneeded carbs

~160g protein / ~220g carbs — lightest carb day of the week.

Weekly Grocery Budget Recap — 350 GEL

Category	Items	Cost (GEL)	Cost (ZAR)
Protein	Chicken/beef 3–4kg, fish 1–2x, eggs (42)	~151	~R939
Dairy	Matsoni/yogurt, cheese, milk	~39	~R243
Carbs	Rice/buckwheat/pasta, bread	~24.5	~R152
Produce	Vegetables (~4kg), fruit (~3.5kg)	~65	~R404
Pantry/Extras	Nuts, dried fruit, honey, oil, spices	~46	~R286
Total		~325–350	~R2,022–2,177

Practical tips

- Buy meat and eggs in bulk once a week at Dezerter Bazaar — cheaper per kg and fewer trips.
- Restock vegetables/greens 2–3x a week since they spoil fast.
- Dairy, rice, and pantry basics keep well from a weekly supermarket run (Nikora/Carrefour).
- Shift the fish/extra-beef buffer to the hardest training day or the day right after for recovery.

- On rest days, swap a rice/bread portion for extra vegetables or cheese — keeps protein high without excess carbs.

Item Prices & Where to Buy

Prices are current 2026 Tbilisi averages in GEL, with an approximate ZAR conversion at ~1 GEL = 6.22 ZAR (rates fluctuate). Bazaar prices are usually 30–50% cheaper than supermarkets for meat, produce, and dairy — supermarkets win on convenience and consistent stock.

Item	Weekly Qty	Price (GEL)	Price (ZAR)	Where to buy
Chicken breast/thigh	2.5–3 kg	~70	~R435	Dezerter Bazaar
Beef	0.5–1 kg	~35	~R218	Dezerter Bazaar
Fish (trout/mackerel)	1–2 portions	~25	~R156	Dezerter Bazaar / Nikora
Eggs	42	~21	~R131	Corner shop (magazia) / Bazaar
Matsoni or yogurt	1.5 kg	~15	~R93	Nikora / Carrefour / Bazaar
Cheese (sulguni/imeruli)	700 g	~14	~R87	Dezerter Bazaar
Milk	3–4 L	~10	~R62	Nikora / Carrefour
Rice, buckwheat, pasta	1.4 kg	~14	~R87	Nikora / Carrefour
Bread (shotis puri)	7 loaves	~10.5	~R65	Local bakery / corner shop
Vegetables	~4 kg	~30	~R187	Dezerter Bazaar
Fruit	~3.5 kg	~35	~R218	Dezerter Bazaar
Nuts + dried fruit	—	~25	~R156	Dezerter Bazaar
Honey, oil, spices	—	~21	~R131	Nikora / Carrefour

Total: ~325.5 GEL / ~R2,025

Where these shops are / what they're good for

- Dezerter Bazaar — Tbilisi's largest farmers market, near the central train station. Best for meat, cheese, produce, nuts, and dried fruit at the lowest prices in the city.
- Nikora / Carrefour — supermarket chains found in every district. Best for dairy, packaged rice/pasta, oil, honey, and pantry staples, plus reliable stock when the bazaar is out of something.
- Corner shops (magazias) — small neighborhood stores on almost every block. Good for bread, eggs, and topping up basics between bigger shopping trips.
- Local bakeries — freshest shotis puri (bread), usually cheaper and better quality than supermarket bread.